

Union Carbide Corporation-Nuclear Division Is Official Name Of Company September 1

Effective September 1, our name will no longer be Union Carbide Nuclear Company. In a letter to employees, Union Carbide Corporation President Birny Mason Jr. announced that all subsidiary companies would become divisions. Thus, our company will be Union Carbide Corporation, Nuclear Division.

There will be other divisions among the Nuclear one . . . namely, Carbon Products, Chemicals, Consumer Products, Linde, Metals, Olefins, Ore, Plastics, Realty, Silicones, Stellite and Visking.

President Mason's letter follows:

"As part of our continuing effort to gain greater public recognition of Union Carbide and its operations, it has been decided to change the names of our divisions as indicated on the attached sheet. These changes were formally approved by the Board of Directors on July 24 and will become effective on September 1, 1963.

"This move is part of a long-range corporate recognition program initiated several years ago. Although Union Carbide is one of the country's major manufacturing companies, it has not been as well known as many other companies of comparable size. Each of our divisions has been well known in its own particular field, but the relationship within one corporate structure is often not recognized by the general public.

Name Shortened In 1957

"One of the first steps taken in launching this program, as many of you may recall, was to shorten our name to Union Carbide Corporation. This was in 1957. Also, at that time, the hexagon symbol was adopted, and it has since been used in advertising, product packaging, and various other forms of communication.

"We believe that a closer association of the name Union Carbide with the many diverse activities of our divisions can have considerable influence in furthering the Corporation's reputation with the general public, the investing public, suppliers, potential employees, and especially with our industrial and consumer customers.

"Internally, we shall continue to stress the decentralized management of our many business areas. Also, the adoption of new names for our divisions will in no way affect the individual titles of employees or the programs of the various divisions. We believe, however, that this change will be helpful in the achievement of our overall corporate goals."

Sincerely,
/s/ Birny Mason Jr.
President

Treasury Men Warn Against Money Photos

The following is a quote from a United States Treasury Department directive on using U. S. currency in photographs: "The illustrations of paper money, checks, or bonds must (1) be in black and white and (2) must be of a size less than three-fourths or more than one and one-half times the size of the genuine instrument."

The above missile might be subtitled: "Why editors get gray!"

Annual Horse Show Set August 23, 24

The East Tennessee Riding Club, Oak Ridge, will hold its annual horse show on the Club grounds Friday and Saturday, August 23, 24. The program begins at 7 p.m. both days, and no daytime events are featured this year.

The 30 classes scheduled include walking horses, gaited horses, hunters and jumpers, equitation and pleasure classes, and road horses and ponies. Among these are the events required by the Tennessee Horse Show Association, of which the East Tennessee Club is a member. Judges will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ezell, Chapel Hill, Tennessee.

A number of children of Y-12ers will be competing in the various classes.

SUMMER HELP

Finding a summer job for the teenager gets a little more difficult every year. The reason? More and more youngsters are reaching this magic age every year. Approximately 3.5 million boys and girls will be 16 in 1963.

More Than 300 Carbiders Attend First Union Carbide Nuclear Company Safety Conference

A company-wide Safety Conference was held Friday, August 2, at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory. More than 300 representatives from the four Union Carbide Nuclear Company plants met to exchange safety methods and experiences. Union Carbide Corporation Vice President Carl H. Hageman; Corporate Industrial Relations Manager Earl Engle; and Corporate Safety Coordinator W. K. Gibson, all from the New York Office, also attended and participated in the conference.

C. E. LARSON, UCNC Vice President, officially opened the four-plant safety conference, stating its purpose as "to provide motivation and stimulation for each of you, and we hope lead to improvement in our overall safety performance."

The conference opened as T. E. Lane, UCNC General Superintendent of Industrial Relations, served as moderator. Dr. C. E. Larson made the welcoming address, stating the intent of the meeting, "to provide motivation and stimulation for each of you, and we hope lead to improvement in our overall safety performance." He pointed out that UCNC's disabling injury experience during the past five years has ranged from 22 per cent to 53 per cent lower than the average for the Corporation (UCC's average is below the chemical industry average, and the chemical industry's average is below industry as a whole.)

Plant Managers Speak

Plant managers from each of the four UCNC plants (Y-12, ORNL and the Oak Ridge Gaseous Diffusion Plant here, as well as the Paducah, Kentucky, plant) outlined the safety programs in the individual plants. A. M. Weinberg, ORNL; R. A. Winkel, Paducah; R. F. Hibbs, Y-12; and R. G. Jordan, ORGDP, each gave detailed information on accident prevention methods in each plant.

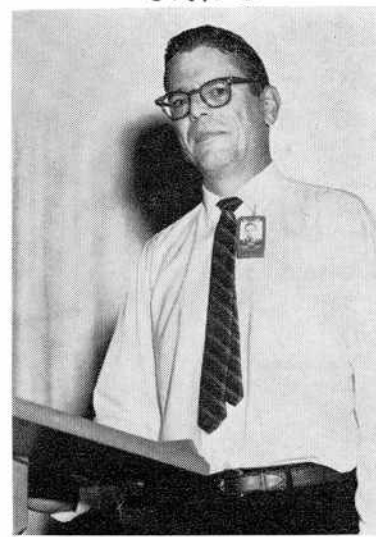

Union Carbide Vice President Hageman was generous in his praise for the safety efforts of the Atomic Energy Installations here and at Paducah. He also set the tone of the entire meeting . . . "A good safety record is fine . . . but it can always be better."

Y-12 Plant Superintendent Hibbs' address centered on individual attitude on safety by each employee.

'A Safe Plant'

"We are not trying to set records, win awards or get publicity," he stated, "We are trying to run a safe plant."

"Safety is not a sometimes interest that can be delegated to the Safety Department or other staff groups," Hibbs pointed out, "It is a primary consideration of the management of the organization. Secondly, nothing we do is important enough to justify taking chances with employees' life or limb."

With colored slides, Hibbs described Y-12's safety program from the Central Safety Committee to an employee safety meeting.

'We Are Not Satisfied'

He concluded his address with a summary of Y-12's safety experience. The accident frequency rate, since 1947 shows a steady decline. This rate for the first half of 1963 is 0.64 resulting from four disabling injuries. It's a pretty good record and shows considerable improvement over the years. However, as I have said, we are not satisfied . . . we will continue to work on this matter of attitude. We want this line to hit ZERO and stay there!"

Carbide Mines Are Often Two Miles High

Union Carbide has conducted mining operations as high as two miles above sea level at the tungsten mine in the California mountains. In 1962, a new tunnel was started at the mile-high mill level. Tungsten is used in producing high-temperature parts for the nation's aerospace program and other important applications.

The Old Timer

"If you feel neglected think of Whistler's father."

Lotsa news this week. Let's begin in

SPECIAL PROJECTS

Susan Kay Watkins

This bright-eyed little beauty is Susan Kay Watkins, the pride and joy of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Watkins. Susan was born July 25, and weighed seven pounds, 13 ounces.

Another new pap in the department is Alex Varlan. The latest addition to his family is James Alexander, born July 23, and weighing 10 pounds, and nine and one-half ounces.

Congratulations to both papas! SP's apologies for failing to mention recent vacations . . . mainly Carol Houser who spent a week at home enjoying her daughter Marsha, and having fun in the sun . . . Ken Haeusler also enjoyed a recent two-week vacation with his family visiting Williamsburg, Virginia, and topping it all off with a nice suntan at Myrtle Beach . . . Graham Smith and family have just returned from Dallas, Texas, after two weeks visiting with relatives and friends . . . It is rumored that one of the major airlines put on a special plane to take Charles Ferguson and family up to Maine to spend two weeks vacation with relatives! . . . Bill Farmer says he is planning a 'honey-do' vacation, but will spend a day in the Smokies riding the Rebel Railroad in spite of everything . . . Frank McGuiness and family are planning on spending a week at Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, frolicking in the sun and surf.

From Area Five it seems there is a patriotic fever spreading the grounds, with so many marching off to serve in summer camps . . . Among those are: Clifford Williams who spent his two weeks at Fort McClellan, Alabama, with C Company of the 306th Engineer Battalion, 81st Infantry Division. The Company is putting on a vigorous campaign for recruits so, as Executive Officer, Cliff requests that any volunteers run to the nearest phone and let him know . . . Larry Rinderer and Jim Kennedy did their duty with the 9308th Air Force Reserve Squadron at Dobbins Air Force Base in Marietta, Georgia . . . Several weeks ago, Duward Chastain spent his two weeks in Charleston, South Carolina, with the Nevel Reserve Unit from Knoxville.

It takes three million pounds pressure to convert graphite to diamonds. Gals use more than that, however, to get one.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

Fire and Guardsmen report H. W. Krouse down in Cumberland Park, Crossville on vacation . . . E. L. Moore visited his daughter in Huntsville, Alabama . . . then on to Washington, D. C. to visit his son.

Other vacationers included W. W. Hall, M. T. Barber, D. I. Davis, F. L. Hammer, E. Woods, P. Surber, G. C. Gregory, R. L. Byrd, G. I. Davis and W. M. Boucher.

Benefits Plans' Art Hines visited in Atlanta last week.

SHIFT SUPERINTENDENTS AND UTILITIES

Spending his vacation just resting at home is G. M. Martin.

D Shiftmen decided to take advantage of a long break and do some traveling . . . D. Stevens to Jellico to do some 'possum hunting . . . J. H. Thomas, swimming and picnicing in the surrounding areas . . . K. E. Caughron plans a visit to Cosby . . . C. D. Langley will probably be crowing over his new grandson. Congratulations.

From the Steam Plant, E. I. Clark, will be taking a short tour of the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia . . . and then returning home to continue his vacation rest.

R. W. Chrisman and wife will spend their vacation traveling to see their son in Illinois . . . J. R. DeMonbrun will be deep-sea fishing near Mobile, Alabama, trying to catch some of those catfish that "caught" him on the last trip there.

Tressa Jo Ann Honeycutt

This little doll is a long way from home, also. She is Tressa Jo Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch T. Honeycutt, near Frankfurt, Germany. Her grand-papa is E. R. Bailey, Utilities.

The most beautiful phrase in the English language is "Come and get it!"

CHEMICAL OPERATIONS

Congratulations and best wishes to the W. W. Welchels on the arrival of a new member to their household . . . a French poodle named Black Pepper . . . F. R. Castleberry and family are camping in the Andersonville State Park.

Wilma and Paul Trebilcox were vacationing at home last week . . . swimming and skiing in their own back yard.

For many of us it's a dream, but for the Tom Ebert's an experience. The Eberts have returned from three weeks vacation in "old sunny California."

Nobody knows D. R. Vanover's politics, but obviously he sanctions the president's "physical fitness program." Vanover is spending part of his vacation hiking in the Great Smokies.

Those returned from vacation and looking very restful are J. E. Hannah, Jim Winfree and W. M. Chandler.

Eleanor Duke had as guest for the past two weeks her sister Mrs. Lucille Chambers from Blountsville, Alabama.

Friends of Sylvia Hatmaker are glad to hear of the fine recovery of her husband Gill who was injured in an accident. Hope he continues to improve.

Jack Williams returned from a three weeks vacation touring California, Utah, Arizona and MARGARET BAKER, Corrine Johnson, Dell Goins and Eleanor Duke cluster around the rocking chair presented Mrs. Johnson at a recent party.

Chem. Operations Party Honors Corrine Johnson With Shower

Saturday, August 3, marked the successful stork shower that co-workers in 9212 gave for Corrine Johnson. Held at the home of Dell Goins, many useful and beautiful items were presented Mrs. Johnson. Margaret Baker and Eleanor Duke assisted with the party.

The guests who attended were: Dennie Roberts, Thelma Bradshaw, Katie Blankenship, Pauline Webb, Jean Laymon, Peggie Bollinger, Beluah Laymon, Mattye Maye, Lucy Townsend, Jean West, Jane McGlothland and son Mike, Cloria Cross, Lennie Mesamore, Laura Hawkins, Ethel White, Allie Baer, Lennie Jeffreys, Mary Jenkins, Evelyn Watson, Katie Goad, Myrtle Leach and Billie and Linda McConnell.

Best wishes are extended to Corrine from her many friends in Y-12.

Mexico . . . Doug McNew (9206) has returned from vacation, whereabouts unknown. Fact is, he left in a hurry.

Vacationing for two weeks is Corine 'Granny' McDaniel visiting her daughter and grandchildren in Oklahoma . . . it was thought.

The mystery of why H. R. Swallows has been so happy of late is solved. His wife has just come back home . . . Mrs. Swallows has been away due to her father's illness.

Folks in 9206 are happy to see Wade Roberts (Health Physics) back on the job after suffering from a foot injury. It's told he uses a golf club for a crutch.

C-1 folks wish to know if Marcus Potter is really taking a vacation. No one knew for sure.

E. V. Kidwell said good-bye to friends and buddies in Y-12 recently. He plans to work for himself in Daytona Beach, Florida in the used car business. He will be missed by all. Success to him.

Lola White enjoyed a week's vacation recently taking care of Al . . . her husband who is off with an injured foot.

Alice Hensley had everyone's curiosity aroused, borrowing and buying such nursery items as high chairs, play pens, etc. The truth was that Alice's brother who lives in Long Beach, California, is coming home, bringing his wife and baby. The family has never met the in-laws, and is looking forward to their visit very much.

Others back from vacation are J. K. West, C. C. Ruckart, and E. W. Young.

Iva James and family have returned from a Daytona Beach vacation.

You can blame most of the lies in the world on women . . . it's because they ask men so many questions.

ENGINEERING

G. W. Martin, Tool Engineering, and family are vacationing in St. Petersburg, Florida this week.

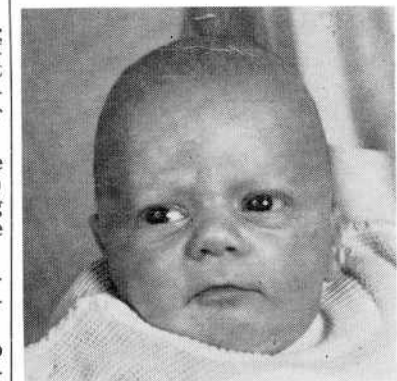

Also bound for Florida are Frank Fuis and family.

The T. C. Swindells are enjoying a visit with their son and his family who are visiting from Detroit.

A man really has poise if he can go right on talking while the other fellow picks up the check.

MAINTENANCE

Adam Charles Brackett

Now here's a bright youngster a long way from his grannie and grand-pop. He is little Adam Charles Brackett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Charles Brackett, now in Friedburg, Germany. Mrs. Brackett is the daughter of Grady W. Chancey, Area Five Maintenance. The Chanceys live at 101 King Street, Kingston.

MECHANICAL OPERATIONS

The Production Machining Department 'lows that J. E. Clemmons is welcomed into the M Wing Shop. Clemmons is on vacation in and around the All-American City . . . O. L. Duncan and family are down in Daytona Beach, Florida, and will probably do some bird watching at Canaveral . . . Ill are S. D. Ownby and E. L. Braden. The best to them.

From the 9206 shop its told that H. S. Smith is on vacation for three weeks in around Charleston, South Carolina, doing some beaching with his family, and visiting with old cronies in the ship yard where he was employed some four years . . . W. C. Smith had to take a vacation to unlimber his good arm and leg in preparation for the State Softball Tournament.

Junior Rifle Class Starts August 27

The fall season of the Junior Indoor .22 Rifle Shooting will get underway Tuesday, August 27, at the Anderson County Gun Club indoor range, Clinton. A six-weeks basic marksmanship training course will be started on this date with six two-hour sessions held each Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Registrations are limited to 20 students between the ages of 11 and 18 years. The course, which is a pre-requisite to membership in the Anderson County Junior Gun Club, is registered with the National Rifle Association and is conducted by NRA Certified Rifle Instructors. This is an excellent opportunity for interested parents to provide their youngsters with a basic and practical knowledge of firearms and safe gun handling.

All necessary equipment for the course will be furnished. A course fee of $3 is charged to cover costs of training manuals, targets, ammunition, etc. For reservations call Bert Searles, plant phone 7-8265, Clinton phone 457-2644; or J. S. Eldridge, plant phone 6771, Oak Ridge 483-3592.

UCNC Safety Conference

While the morning sessions were taken up by the four plant managers exchanging safety program ideas, also added was Bill Gibson, UCC Safety Coordinator, who pointed out what other Carbide installations are doing about safety. A brief description of Union Carbide's managerial attitude toward safety was discussed by Vice President Carl H. Hageman.

Afternoon sessions, which saw about half the 300 attending from the morning conference, featured workshop sessions, many running concurrently. W. L. Harwell led one workshop of "Legal Considerations in the Health and Safety Program." T. A. McKenzie discussed "Job Hazard Analysis." S. D. Fulkerson headed the panel on "Fire Prevention Demonstration." Drs. H. Hurt and T. A. Lincoln spoke on "Stimulating Supervisor's Awareness of his Safety Responsibilities."

E. L. Bentley and J. F. Morehead led the session on "Protective Equipment — Provision, Use, Control, Enforcement and Evaluation." A. D. Callihan discussed "The Evolution of Codes and Standards Applicable to UCNC Operations." "Electrical Hazard Demonstration and Hazards of Lightning" were discussed by R. C. West and W. A. Bogdanowicz.

The all-day conference was the first ever held, giving all four plants the opportunity to share in benefits from looking at other programs, discussing mutual problems, and sharing information on how to improve safe standards with which all employees can make UCNC a safer place to work.

While programs may vary from plant to plant, the general consensus was that safety, when all is said and done, is a matter of attitude . . . an individual's attitude. THIS IS SOMETHING WE CAN ALL HAVE A SHARE IN IMPROVING.

Alabama Participant Leads ORNL Seminar

Ambuq Mukerji, Research Participant from the University of Alabama, will head the Oak Ridge National Laboratory Physics Division's seminar this week. His subject will be "Decay of  $Ru^{103}$ ."

The seminar is set for Friday, August 16, at 3:15 p.m., in the East Auditorium of ORNL's 4500 building.

Improper Lifting Can Result In Injuries

Almost 25 per cent of all disabilities suffered by American workers are caused by improper handling of materials. Much of this can be avoided. Put the strain on the leg muscles when lifting, not on the back. Get help when necessary and work together in moving heavy and awkward loads. Be especially careful when working on loading platforms and around stacked materials.

Attending a family reunion last week in Memphis and also vacationing was J. E. Hargis . . . W. D. Newman Jr. is going to enjoy Daytona Beach for two glorious weeks.

All Beta Two Machine Shop personnel wishes To Ho Miller a speedy relief of ailments when he left for Fort Sanders Hospital recently. However, the patient reports that all he was relieved of was one wrist watch, one cigarette lighter, one pair of fingernail clippers and $1.98 in change, all while he was under the influence of a sleeping pill.

F. Area reports J. H. Billingsley vacationing for two weeks here and yon.

H. E. Clayton evidently had unfinished business in Florida . . . he has gone back for another week . . . J. A. Williams is off to parts unknown for two weeks . . . John Fernandez and family are off to Ohio for a visit with relatives . . .

H-2 Machine Shop sends get well wishes to Sam Edwards who is recovering from an operation in Fort Sanders Hospital, Knoxville.

Carl Dorr will be spending most of his vacation on the Deane Hill Country Club golf course, of course . . . Frank Pitzer will have his two sons home for a visit during his vacation . . .

A Wing reports W. L. Jones has purchased a new house trailer and seems to be in a hurry to move in.

The shop bids a fond farewell to J. H. Turner who left Friday to return to his Cincinnati home.

Vacationers from A Wing are M. H. Vineyard . . . for two weeks . . . J. A. Whitney for only one . . . Harold Bright vacationed in New Mexico . . . also taking off were P. D. Letsinger, George Wylie and A. M. Maples.

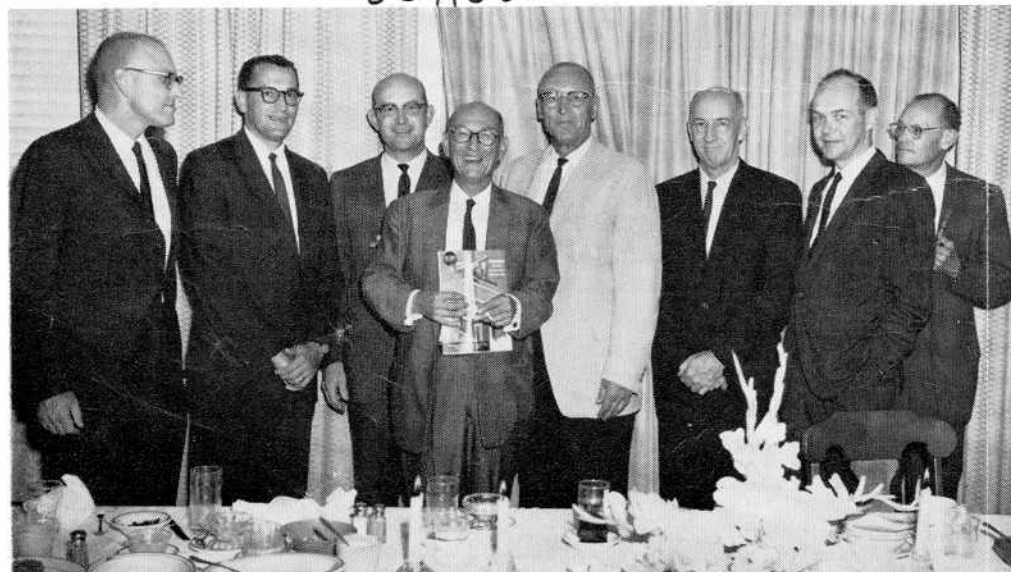

Beta Four still sends good wishes to R. E. McJunkins.

Jesse Johnston is off on another jaunt. We hear by the grapevine he headed toward Nashville. Where he went from there, nobody knows. Others taking off from here were E. L. Douglas, I. L. Miller, J. O. Overton, J. E. Pace, F. C. Stoetzel and R. H. Wilkerson.

ACCOUNTING & BUDGET

At home in Clinton vacationing is Clifford Anderson . . . Marvin Flatt is also vacationing in the big city of Kingston . . . Luther Seals is welcomed into the 9212 group from Numerical Control . . . Ronnie Taylor is spending a two-weeks stint with Uncle Sam at Fort McClellan, Alabama.

From Property, a welcome in to W. A. Moles from Timekeeping and to James Markland from

ENGINEERING FOLKS AND OTHER PLANT FRIENDS gathered Tuesday, July 30, to honor Paul F. Galle, who retired last month. The Park Hotel, Clinton, was the scene of the happy dinner party. The retired Galle plans to spend most of his spare time at his summer home on Norris Lake. This fall he planned a motor trip through his native New England states.
